

News & Announcements

For Immediate Release

---

AIG FINANCIAL ADVISORS ANNOUNCES LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Ray Day honored at recent conference

PHOENIX, [June 27, 2008] -- AIG Financial Advisors has honored Ray Day, a financial advisor from Torrance, CA with its Lifetime Achievement Award. Day has been affiliated with the broker-dealer since the 1990s after receiving a letter from Tom Gau urging advisors in his area to consider joining SunAmerica Securities, the former name of AIG Financial Advisors. The firm made the lifetime achievement announcement during its annual National Education Conference, held in early June in Las Vegas, NV.

Day's career in the financial services industry began full-time in 1987, following a stint as an engineer in the flight service department of Pan American World Airways and Continental Airlines. He worked as a financial planner part-time until the late 1980s when he received a letter from Tom Gau saying that SunAmerica was looking for advisors. In 2002, he formed a new partnership with Melanie and Don Tanaka and started Legacy Financial Group. Their firm has $65 million under management in fee-based business and another $85 million in commission-based business.

Born just west of New Orleans in Norco, LA, Ray holds a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Georgia Institute of Technology in Atlanta. He holds FINRA Series 7 and 63 registrations along with his Certified Financial Planning accreditation.

When he is not helping clients at Legacy Financial, Ray is a volunteer with his local theatre company, the Norris Center for Performing Arts and a first responder for the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Operational Disaster Communications Service. He works as an amateur radio operator for the group.

Ray lives in Torrance with his wife of 40-plus years, Donna, who accompanied him on stage. "To the love of my life, Donna," Ray said in a heart-felt acknowledgement during the ceremony. "Thank you sweetheart."

The Lifetime Achievement Award is the highest honor bestowed by AIG Financial Advisors. The award recognizes professional contributions and personal commitment to the community. This award is reserved for times when a worthy recipient has demonstrated a life-long career of achievement and helping others.

AIG Financial Advisors, Inc. (AIGFA) is one of the nation's largest independent broker-dealer organizations based on 2007 total revenues of more than $330 million, according to Financial Planning Magazine's 2008 Guide to Independent Broker-Dealers. Headquartered in Phoenix, AIGFA has 1900 affiliated independent financial advisors and 350 branch locations. AIGFA is a registered broker-dealer, an SEC-registered investment adviser, member FINRA and SIPC, and a member company of American International Group, Inc. (AIG).

oo-00-oo